GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly :

The people of Nebraska have confided to you the important trust of enacting such laws for the protection of their rights and interests as the exigencies of the times and the circumstances by which we are surrounded demand.

The only law under which crime can be punished in this Territory, is the Common Law of England. All other criminal laws have been abolished by the Act of a previous Legislature. The Common Law of England is so uncertain and doubtful in reference to every proceeding and offence, and its punishment, that every point will have to be adjudicated before even the courts can tell what the law is.

Thus, while serious doubts have been entertained as to whether some offences can be punished at all under that law, it has been clear that perjury, forgeries, and all offences designated as felonies, are punishable with death ; a penalty which renders the strict administration of that law repugnant to our ideas of justice and humanity, and inapplicable to the age and country in which we live.

Almost all the States of the Union have adopted criminal laws, making the punishment for crime in most cases different from what they were at common law, clearly defining crimes and the penalties. And with their examples before us, it is not a difficult matter to perfect and adopt a Criminal Code for this Territory, which shall at once provide for the just and certain punishment of all offenders.

Having thus briefly called your attention to the important necessity of enacting a wholesome and judicious system of criminal laws, I desire in the same connection to call your attention to the necessity of passing laws clearly defining the jurisdiction and duties of Justices of the Peace, Constables, and other officers of the Territory. It is impossible to have the laws administered by inferior officers unless their duties and jurisdiction are clearly defined by statute laws. Each member of the Legislative Assembly is aware of the fact, that the Justices of the Peace in the Territory have refused to investigate charges of crime or preserve the peace, or do any other act, unless they could find the authority in the statute for so doing. I therefore invite your attention to the importance of this subject.

I submit herewith the reports of the Auditor, and Treasurer of the Territory.

By the Auditor's Report it will be seen that the total outstanding liabilities of the Territory are $15,774.95. It will be seen by the Treasurer's Report, that "five counties only, viz : Dodge, Douglas, Cass, Otoe and Nemaha, have paid any revenue into the territorial treasury, and the counties mentioned have not paid the full amount due of them up to this time."

Both the Treasurer and Auditor recommend changes in the Revenue Law, or the enacting of a new one. I present their recommendations to your favorable consideration, as also the recommendation of the Auditor for the procurement from the different Land Offices of a list of lands pre-empted, so as to subject them to taxation.

The passage of a law that would secure the prompt payment of taxes now due, and to fall due the coming year, would pay off the present liabilities and meet the expenses of the Territory. Justice and wisdom dictate the necessity of the passage of such a law.

The salaries of the Auditor and Treasurer are insufficient remuneration for the amount of duty they have to perform. Their compensation should be increased.

I issued instructions, during the summer, to the District Attorneys, to file information in the proper courts against each of the banks that had failed to redeem their notes, when presented for payment, with the view to have their charters forfeited. The cases are now pending, as I am informed, and undecided. While I should not have approved any bank charter that has been adopted in the Territory, and while believing the principle upon which they are based wrong, and the effect injurious, I had no intention to interfere with any corporation that had complied with the law. In all their rights they are entitled to protection. I am not advised whether application will be made by any of them for relief. If such applications are made, serious difficulties interpose, unless the banks deposit securities to redeem their issues with some public officer to be designated by law.

The charters, as passed, made the stockholders responsible for the issues of the banks. If the time of redemption is extended by the legislature, a question may arise as to whether the stockholder is not discharged unless he assents to the extension.

I suggest to you the propriety of fixing by law the evidence which shall be sufficient to transfer stocks in the Banks in future.

A law limiting the prosecution of suits in the Territory, is dictated by prudence and necessity. In some of the States of the Union the limitation of actions for the recovery of rights, by law, are extended to a long period of time, in others, the period of time is very short; reason and justice point to a period of time between these extremes that should be adopted by the Territory.

Your attention is directed also to the law now in force relative to Notaries Public and Commissioners of Deeds. You will find that while only one Commissioner is allowed to the largest cities in the Union, Notaries are to be commissioned without limit in the smallest towns of the Territory. A new law regulating the appointment of these officers is needed. Appropriations have heretofore been made by Congress to construct two roads in the Territory. One from Platte river to L'Eau qui Court, and the other from the Missouri river to Fort Kearney, but have proved inadequate to complete them as designed. A further appropriation is therefore necessary. The roads are of great importance to the people of the Territory and the General Government, and it is believed that further appropriations will be made and the road speedily completed.

At the last session of the Legislature, the then Acting Governor in his Message made the following recommendation: "A memorial should also be forwarded praying for an appropriation for a Military Bridge across the Platte river. All good citizens ardently desire that the sectional alienation heretofore existing between the two sections of the Territory should cease forever, and will heartily approve the endeavors of your honorable body to contribute to such a result. The importance of the earliest transmission of these memorials to Congress should elicit immediate action."

The subject is important enough to be again referred to.

There are other subjects which will demand your attention and consideration during the present session, and it will afford me great pleasure to co-operate in whatever will conduce to the public welfare. I congratulate you, gentlemen, upon the present prosperous condition of the Territory. We have enough produce to supply the wants of our own people, together with those of the emigrant, and yet more for exportation to those upon whom the harvest sun has smiled less propitiously. The husbandman has drawn wealth from the cultivation of our broad and fertile prairies by that untiring industry which has in all ages of the world been the sure and certain precursor of a Nation's greatness, power and wealth. But this wealth of the soil sinks into comparative insignificance when contrasted with that wealth which is hidden beneath it—those vast stores of mineral and coal which underlie the greater portion of the Territory. The most superficial investigations prove the existence of coal and iron in abundance. And now hundreds of our sturdy sons of the border are en route for the western portion of our Territory, in pursuit of gold. And giving credence to apparently well authenticated reports from Cherry creek and Laramie peak, a new Eldorado has been opened in our very midst which shall give an impetus to every branch of industry, and eventually make the great valley of the Missouri not only the garden, but the central money power of the Union.

In this connection, the importance of a memorial to Congress asking an appropriation to defray the expense of a geological survey of Nebraska, can but be appreciated. Such a memorial from you will, undoubtedly, secure the desired assistance, and greatly aid in revealing the untold mineral wealth of the country.

The Pacific Rail Road, which thus far has only had its existence in the thoughts and plans of men, will soon become a reality, having a permanent being. And the true route for that road and the true interests of its constructors will most certainly lead it up the rich and beautiful valley of the Great Platte. American energy and enterprise are as determined to carry out this great project of connecting the two oceans by bonds of iron, as they were to bring Europe and America into talking distance with each other, by means of the Atlantic Telegraph Cable, and the success of the one only establishes the more certain fulfillment of the other.

Nebraska occupies a position in the very heart of this great Republic, and as she now is the geographical center of the Union, so shall she soon become the commercial. Standing, as we do, midway between the Atlantic and the Pacific, where the wealth and commerce of both oceans shall pay tribute to our people, their wealth, their advancement, and their power is inevitable. With a soil unsurpassed in fertility, and a climate whose healthful influences are admitted by all, settled upon by a class of people whose industry, enterprise and intelligence is fast converting the wilderness into a garden, who shall dare portray the fullness and prosperity of that splendid destiny which is reserved for the future State of Nebraska?

Since the adjournment of the last Legislative Assembly, the Territory has lost one of her brightest intellects, one whose genius and attainments had inspired his many friends with high hopes, and marked out for him a brilliant and useful future. T. B. Cumming, Secretary of the Territory, has been called away forever.

Having resigned the place I now occupy, my official connection with you will soon cease; I can therefore have no interest, no wish, and no inclination to enter into any local agitation. But, upon the other hand, I wish in some degree to contribute to the advancement and improvement of the Territory.

I shall recur with pleasure to the many kindnesses of the people of the Territory towards me, and carry with me the recollection that I have endeavored faithfully to promote the public welfare.

In conclusion, permit me to urge you, gentlemen, to discard all local feeling, all jealousies, and unite where interests are the same and where opinions can not be divided in passing the laws so necessary for the interests of those you represent.

I hope peace, concord and harmony may characterize your deliberations, and that you may so discharge your duties as to merit and receive the approval of your constituents after your labors shall have been completed.

W. A. RICHARDSON.

Executive Department, Omaha, Sept. 22, 1858.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

OFFICE OF THE TERRITORIAL TREASURER, }
Omaha, Neb., Sept. 20, 1858. }

To His Excellency W. A. Richardson,
Governor of Nebraska:

Sir—In compliance with the requirements of the law specifying the duties of the Territorial Treasurer, I herewith submit a statement of the condition of the Treasury.

It will be seen that five counties only, viz: Dodge, Douglas, Cass, Otoe and Nemaha, have paid any revenue into the Territorial Treasury, and the counties mentioned have not paid in the full amount due from them up to this time.

Complaints have been made by County Treasurers, of inability to collect the Territorial Revenue, on account of the insufficiency of the Revenue Law, and the lack of authority necessary to warrant the proper officers in forcing the sale of property for taxes. Under this state of things, the propriety and the necessity of a stringent Revenue Law can not be doubted, and it is advisable that the Legislature should enact such a law, and make ample provision for carrying it into effect. It is important for the credit and well being of the territory, that its indebtedness should be promptly met, both principal and interest. The holders of the territorial warrants are pressing in their demands for payment; and the neglect by former Legislatures of making provision for their payment, has caused these warrants to be thrown into the market, and sold at rates ruinous to the credit of the Territory, and profitable to the speculator.

The interest due since July 1, 1857, on the loan authorized by the Territory, remains unpaid (with the exception of $55), no funds having been in my hands to meet such payment of interest.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. WYMAN,
Territorial Treasurer.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

OMAHA CITY, NEBRASKA, }
Sept. 15, 1858.

Hon. Wm. A. Richardson,
Governor of Nebraska:

Dear Sir—In compliance with your request, I herewith submit for your examination, the statement of the issue of treasury warrants from July 11th, 1855, to September 1st, 1858, comprising the total amount issued from the organization of the Territory to the present time:

For expenses incurred during the different sessions of the Legislature, as firemen, engrossing clerks, indexing journals, &c., &c.,.....	$6328.05
For canvassing election returns and a special messenger bearing returns, &c., &c.,.....	300.00

Wednesday, September 22, 1858.

15

For incidental expenses, hauling guns, rent of arsenal, repairing capital, &c.,	$259.00
For salaries of Territorial officers, Auditor, Librarian and Treasurer,	2511.25
For services paid for taking census,	2336.25
For amount issued to District Attorneys,	4913.86
Total amount of warrants issued,	$16648.21

Add to the above:

Amount of bonds issued by Treasurer according to an act of the Legislature,	4000.00
Amount forward,	$20648.21
Amount of interest due on bonds, July 1, 1858 (unpaid), ..	545.00
	$21193.21

Deduct from the above:

Amount of warrants redeemed with cash by Treasurer,	$4180.00
Amount rec'd from County Treasurers for taxes,	1238.26
	$5418.26
Total outstanding warrants, bonds, and interest on bonds,	$15774.95

The foregoing amount embraces all the debts of the Territory, for which the warrants or other obligations of the Territory have been issued.

The necessity for an efficient and just Revenue Law, is so apparent, that I deem it only necessary for me to allude to the same; your Excellency having, no doubt, duly considered the wants of the Territory in this respect.

As a law will undoubtedly be passed, at the coming session of the Legislature, for the collection of the Revenue of the Territory, which law will not in all probability go into effect before next year, I have thought it proper to call your attention to the unpaid taxes of the present year. The Collectors of the Revenue, in the different counties, complain of the inefficiency of the present law, in aiding them in making their collections; and I would suggest the propriety of passing a special act providing for the collection of the taxes of 1858; or so to amend the present law as to enable them to collect promptly, and pay the funds into the Treasury, to meet the present indebtedness of the Territory. Another matter of great importance, in connection with the foregoing, is, the most of the counties have not been able to procure, from the different Land Officers, a list of all the pre-exempted lands in their respective counties, as they have no correct means of ascertaining the names of the persons entering the lands, and a description of the same, except through the Land Office. I would suggest, that some officer be empowered to procure a full and complete list of all lands that have been entered, giving a description of the same in section, township and range, together with the name of the person entering the same. It could be done at the expense of the Territory, and each county furnished with its list, and charged with its due proportion of the expense.

In conclusion, I wish to call your attention to the present small remuneration in the way of salaries to the Territorial Officers. As the labors of the Treasurer, and Auditor in particular, will be greatly increased by the passage and operations of the new Revenue Law, the present rates of salaries should be so altered as to justify the officers in devoting the time and attention to the wants of the different officers and the interests of the Territory require.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

B. C. JORDAN,
Territorial Auditor.

The following communication from Hon. J. Sterling Morton, Secretary of the Territory, was received:

SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Omaha City, Sept. 23, 1858. }

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives :

In compliance with a resolution that was passed by your Honorable Body on yesterday, asking for information relative to the disbursements of moneys for public printing, newspapers for members, and postage, I have the honor to submit the following information:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, }
August 20, 1858.

* * * * In making your disbursements, I have to prescribe, as your guides, the 12th section of the Organic Act of Nebraska (vol. 10, Statutes at Large, p. 282); the 117th paragraph of the Act of May, 18, 1842, particularly the last proviso (vol. 5, Stats., p. 480), and the second section, Act August 29, 1842 (vol. 5, Stats., p. 541).

Proper attention to these enactments must make a right course certain. There may occur, however, under the incidental head, items of expense of doubtful propriety. Before paying any of these you should consult the accounting officers.

I am, respectfully, your ob't serv't,
W. MEDILL, Comptroller.

That part of the Organic Act referred to, i. e., the twelfth section, reads as follows:

"The members of the Legislative Assembly shall be entitled to receive three dollars each per day during their attendance at the sessions thereof, and three dollars each for every twenty miles travel in going to and returning from the said sessions, estimating according to the nearest usually traveled route; and an additional allowance of three dollars shall be paid to the presiding officer of each House for each day he shall so preside. And a Chief Clerk, and Assistant Clerk, a Sergeant-at-Arms, and Doorkeeper, may be chosen for each House; and the Chief Clerk shall receive four dollars per day, and the said other officers three dollars per day during the session of the Legislative Assembly; but no other officer shall be paid by the United States: Provided, that there shall be but one session of the Legislature annually, unless, on an extraordinary occasion, the Governor shall think proper to call the Legislature together. There shall be appropriated, annually, the usual sum, to be expended by the Governor, to defray the contingent expenses of the Territory, including the salary of a Clerk of the Executive Department; and there shall also be appropriated, annually, a sufficient sum, to be expended by the Secretary of the Territory, and upon an estimate to be made by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, to defray the expenses of Legislative Assembly, the printing of the laws, and other incidental expenses, and the Governor and Secretary shall, in the disbursement of all moneys intrusted to them, be governed solely by the instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and shall, semi-annually, account to the said Secretary for the manner in which the aforesaid money shall have been expended; and no expenditure shall be made by said Legislative Assembly for objects not specially authorized by the acts of Congress, making the appropriations; nor beyond the sums thus appropriated for such objects."

Passing from the Organic Act to the last provision of the 117th paragraph of the Act of May 18, 1842, the following language may be found:

STATUTES AT LARGE, VOL. V., P. 480.

* * * * "And provided, further: That the Legislative Assembly of no Territory shall hereafter, in any instance or under any pretext whatever, exceed the amount appropriated by Congress for its annual expenses."

The next reference to the Statutes at Large, i. e., the second section, Act, August 27, 1842, volume 5, Statutes, page 542, informs me of my duties in this wise:

STATUTES AT LARGE, VOL. V., P. 541.

"And be it further enacted, That all accounts for disbursements in the Territories of the United States, of money appropriated by Congress for the support of government therein, shall be settled and adjusted at the Treasury Department; and no act, resolution, or order of the Legislature of any Territory, directing the expenditure of the sum, shall be deemed sufficient for such disbursement, but sufficient vouchers and proof for the same shall be required by said accounting officers. And no payment shall be made or allowed unless the Secretary of the Treasury shall have estimated therefor, and the object been approved by Congress. No session of the Legislature of a Territory shall be held until the appropriation for its expenses shall have been made."

Thursday, September 23, 1858.

In relation to the subscribing for newspapers by members of the Legislative Assembly, I have the honor to transmit the following letter. The sum named as the maximum expenditure for newspapers, one hundred and fifty dollars, will, when divided among the forty-eight members and two Chief Clerks of the Legislative Assembly, give three dollars to each person, and for that amount only shall I be responsible to publishers:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, }
September 8, 1858.

J. Sterling Morton, Esq., Secretary of the Territory, Omaha City, Nebraska.

Sir—In your letter of the 24th ultimo, you inquire as to the propriety of furnishing newspapers, at the expense of the government, to the members of the Legislative Assembly. There appears to be but one reason why such an expense should be borne by the United States, in common with the other expenses attending the Legislative Assembly, and it is this: The representatives of the people should be kept advised of public opinion in the Territory as to their acts, and this is effected through the medium of the newspapers. An economical expenditure on this account has always been recognized by the accounting officers, and will be in the case of your Legislature. An expenditure to the extent of from $125 to $150, has in general covered this item; at any rate, you are instructed not to go beyond that limit.

I am, respectfully, your ob't serv't,
W. MEDILL, Comptroller.

Relative to the present session, I submit the following letter:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, }
September 6, 1858.

J. Sterling Morton:

Sir—You inquire in substance, in your letter of the 24th ult., whether, in the event the Legislative Assembly is convened on the day fixed by law, namely, the first Monday in January, notwithstanding the session called to begin on the 24th inst., the expenses attending it can be paid by the United States.

The twelfth section of the Organic Act of Nebraska, provides among other things: "That there shall be but one session of the Legislature annually, unless on an extraordinary occasion, the Governor shall think proper to call the Legislature together." There can, therefore, be no question as to the liability of the United States to pay the expenses attending an extra session of the Legislative Assembly, when made necessary by some "extraordinary occasion."

In the present case, the local laws of the Territory enacted heretofore, having been found insufficient to effect the purposes intended in their enactment, the Governor finds it necessary to call into requisition that power whose function it is to supply the deficiency. This he has done in his proclamation convening the Legislative Assembly on the 21st inst. But while the "occasion" prompting such action on his part, is apparently of a character sufficiently important to bring the session within the meaning of the term "extraordinary," as expressed in the law, he does not so regard it. On the contrary, he makes it the "regular" session, convened in advance of the time fixed by law." Should the Assembly so esteem it, and find time within the limits prescribed by law, namely, forty days, to transact also the business that would occupy them during the "regular" session, it is in their power to legalize it. It is plain the mere proclamation can not. The law, however, makes this restriction: The expenses must not exceed the amount appropriated.

That amount for the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1859, is $20,000, of which a portion has been already advanced you.

If, therefore, the Assembly refuses to legalize the coming session, the restriction indicated is an obstacle that can not be overcome; and the average annual expense of that body makes it plain that, without a more economical management than has characterized former years, the expenses of an extra session may be incurred without the means to pay them.

I am, respectfully, your ob't serv't,
W. MEDILL, Comptroller.

Relative to postage, the usual arrangements have been made, and this office will be responsible for postage of members during the session, provided it be legalized or regularized as specified in the letter above.

Respectfully, &c.,
J. STERLING MORTON,
Secretary of Nebraska.

MINORITY REPORT.

The committee to which was referred "information relative to disbursements of moneys for public printing, newspapers for members and postage," submitted to the House by the Honorable Secretary of the Territory, beg leave respectfully to present the following report:

The questions raised by the information are of the most important character. They concern the relations of the co-ordinate branches of government, and the extent and limit of the powers, rights and duties of each. They belong to the class of important questions, which the working of our government, modeled as it is after the federal constitution—that wise and delicate adjustment of checks and balances of power must constantly evolve. Your committee are called upon to say, in their opinion, where the power of the Secretary ends and that of the House begins; and the determination of that question may likely become a precedent, by which our successors in these seats and these duties will govern themselves. Your committee have looked upon the question thus raised as of very grave character.

They have, therefore, approached the consideration of the matter with calmness and a desire to discover the law. The case is too important to be affected by any temporary feeling or party passion. Questions of this nature always appeal more or less to such feelings and passions. The Legislature on the one hand is jealous of its power and rights, and resents the slightest approaches of executive interference. The executive, on the other hand, is jealous of its power and rights, and resents any interference in their exercise by the Legislature. Natural, however, as it always is for these feelings to arise in the co-ordinate branches of the government, when considering their relative rights and powers, to yield to them, to be guided by them, is to turn from the way of truth and discretion, and to fall into gross error. The question presented is one of law purely. Your committee has considered it as an abstract question, dispassionately and calmly.

Sec. 12 of the Organic Act contains the following provision:

Three classes of expenditures are here provided. First, "sums to be expended by the Governor to defray the contingent expenses of the Territory, including the salary of a clerk," &c. Second, "sums to be expended by the Secretary," * * * "to defray the expenses of the Legislative Assembly, the printing of the laws and other incidental expenses." These officers are to account to the Secretary of the Treasury for the manner in which they expend these sums, and are under his direction. Third, "expenditures by the Legislative Assembly, for objects specially authorized by acts of Congress making the appropriations." Nothing more is wanted to determine the respective rights of the officers and Assembly, than a simple reading of this part of the section. The law says the Governor shall make certain expenditures for certain objects; the Secretary certain other expenditures for certain other objects, and the Legislature other expenditures for objects which Congress may provide for. One can not intrude into the rights of the other.

When the act says, the Secretary shall expend sums for certain objects, it clothes him with full power in the premises. To hold otherwise would be going too far. If we can control the Secretary in the matter of public printing, we may control the Governor in the payment of the salary of the clerk of his office—we may even say who that clerk shall be. The words of the act authorizing the Governor to appoint and pay a clerk, and the words authorizing the Secretary to procure the printing to be done are exactly the same.

To put the close construction on the words of the act, that it provides for the PAYMENT for the public printing by the Secretary, but leaves him powerless to CONTRACT FOR ITS EXECUTION, is to leave no department of government authorized to contract for it. The negative upon the power of the Legislature to make an expenditure not authorized by act of Congress, does not confer the right. The power does not exist anywhere if not with the Secretary.

There are certain expenses which are fixed—they can be estimated—they are annual—they are ordinary—they are necessary. These are named, and they are named because they can be. There are others that are not fixed; they are not annual nor ordinary; such as expenditures for penitentiaries, schools, colleges, &c., &c. It is clearly the object of the law, to restrict the power of the Legislature, over expenditures which can not be specifically named in the act; and it therefore provides that these expenditures are to be for purposes to be specially authorized by acts of Congress making appropriations for them. How is there any act of Congress making an appropriation for the printing of our laws? One must be found specially authorizing the Legislature to make an expenditure for such object, or else the Legislature has no power to make it. It is to be noticed that the object for which the Legislature is to spend money, if at all, is to be SPECIALLY authorized by Congress; and not so only, but it is to be so specially authorized by an act making the appropriation. Such a law is not to be found. The appropriation law does not specially name printing at all. That law is to be found at page 306, Laws of 1857-8, and is as follows:

"Territory of Nebraska; for salaries of Governor, three Judges and Secretary, ten thousand five hundred dollars.

"For contingent expenses of said Territory, one thousand dollars.

"For compensation and mileage of the members of the Legislative Assembly, officers, clerks, and contingent expenses of the Assembly, twenty thousand dollars."

Does this act specially authorize the Legislature to expend money for printing? And yet it is the only act making appropriations for this Territory.

But let us look at the matter as a practical question. If this House were to have printing done without regard to the Secretary, where would the pay come from? Could we compel the Secretary to pay it? We have no means of doing it. He is independent of us. The money is not under our control, but his. He could refuse to pay for the printing, and we could not compel him to pay for it. We are powerless in his hands.

Your committee are, for these reasons, of opinion that the Secretary, and not the House, have control of the entire matter of the printing, and therefore recommend that he be requested to procure two thousand copies of the Governor's Message to be printed for the use of the House.

Your committee are at a loss to understand why the Secretary raises the question of making this session an extra or a regular session in connection with postage, and not in connection with the other expenses of the session. There seems no reason why postage should be refused members as it is, and yet all the other expenses be paid in case we do not render this a regular session.

He presents the matter to us, however, and it demands consideration.

The question may be thus stated: If an extra session be called by the Governor prior to the time of holding the regular session, are the expenses of such extra session to be paid, or are the sums appropriated by Congress to be withheld until the regular session? The power to call an extra session is conferred upon the Governor in Sec. 12, where the organic act says "There shall be but one session of the Legislature annually, unless on an extraordinary occasion the Governor shall think proper to call the Legislature together." It is conceded by the Comptroller of the Treasury, in his letter transmitted by the Secretary with the information that the Government is liable for the expenses of such extra session. It is, however, provided, and evidently with great care, that the expenditure on the Legislative Assembly shall not exceed $20,000, whether at regular or extra session, or both. Now if the United States is liable for the expenses of the extra session, but in one year not liable for any sessions beyond $20,000, it would appear that the expenditure of this $20,000 commences with the first day of the first session, be it regular or special, and runs on till the $20,000 is all paid out. It can not be possible that when the Legislature has been solemnly convened by the Governor, either on an ordinary or an extraordinary occasion, that the expenses are to be held back till the year or a part of the year has expired. It can not be that our postage is to go unpaid till it is discovered whether there is to be a regular session, and how much is or will be paid thereout, and then pay or repudiate—according as the condition of the Treasury may require.

The Comptroller says in his letter, that the Governor attempts, in his proclamation, to make the session the regular one, but that he can not do it but we may. The Comptroller certainly mistakes the proclamation. It sets forth the alarming condition of the country as constituting the extraordinary occasion which justifies him in calling an extra session, and says that this extraordinary occasion has rendered it necessary to call the Legislature together in advance of the time fixed by law, which is nothing more nor less than saying it is necessary to call an extra session.

With the question of whether it is or is not expedient to make this the regular session, we have nothing to do.

Your committee are of opinion that the expenses of this session should be paid as they are incurred from day to day, without reference to whether any other session be held until the whole $20,000 are expended, and would recommend that the Secretary be requested to pay the postage of members accordingly.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

B. P. RANKIN,
WM. B. HALL.

Mr. Stewart from same committee submitted the following

MAJORITY REPORT.

The select committee to whom was referred the report of the Secretary of the Territory relative to the disbursements of the public moneys, having had the same under consideration, beg leave to make the following majority report.

It appears from the instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury, which accompany and make a part of the report of the Secretary of the Territory, that the only rules by which the Secretary is to be guided in the disbursement of the public moneys appropriated by the General Government, are to be found in the 117th paragraph of the Act of Congress of May 18, 1842, the second section of the Act of Congress of August 29, 1842, and the Act of Congress organizing the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska, under and by virtue of which said several acts of Congress, together with the interpretation thereof, the Secretary of the Territory assumes the right, not only to disburse the public moneys aforesaid, but also in the matter of the public printing, to select the person or persons who are to perform the work, thereby exercising legislative and judiciary powers.

Your committee, however, are of the opinion that no such powers as thus assumed, are vested in that officer, and that their exercise is not only unwarranted by any of the provisions of the above entitled acts of Congress, but also not deducible from the instructions of the secretary of the treasury accompanying the report of the Secretary of the Territory.

Your committee have been unable to discover in any of the communications of the secretary of the treasury, any decision in regard to the right claimed, but simply a reference by said Secretary to the said Acts of Congress, upon which your committee have also based their conclusions. It will be seen by reference to the Act of Congress of May 18, 1842, that said act has reference solely to the amount of the appropriations, and not to the object or manner of disposing of the same. The act reads thus: "That the Legislative Assembly of no Territory shall hereafter in any instance or under any pretext whatever exceed the amount appropriated by Congress for its annual expenses."

It will thus be seen that by no forced constructions, is the Secretary authorized to assume the control of the public printing, or to dictate to the legislative department of the Territory, any appropriations for the Territory, but plainly recognises the right of the Territorial Legislature to make appropriations not exceeding the amount limited by Congress.

Again, it will be seen by reference to the Act of Congress of August 29, 1842 that said act refers merely to the place where the accounts of the Territory shall be audited; secondly, to the manner in which the vouchers and proofs shall be presented; and thirdly, requires that "no payment shall be allowed unless the Secretary of the Treasury shall have estimated therefor, and the object been approved by Congress." The following is the language of the act:

"That all accounts for disbursements in the territories of the United States of all money appropriated by Congress for the support of Government therein shall be settled and adjusted at the Treasury Department; and no act, resolution, or order of the Legislature of any Territory, directing the expenditure of the sum shall be deemed a sufficient authority for such disbursements, but sufficient vouchers and proof for the same shall be required by said accounting officers."

Again, it will be seen by this act as in the act above referred to, that there is an entire absence of any power given the Secretary of the Territory to dictate in the matter of the appropriations, or the objects to which the same is to be applied, but that it is evident from the language of the act, the power over the whole subject of appropriations for the purpose of carrying on the Territorial Government, is given to the legislative department, keeping within the amount limited by Congress. It will also be seen by a reference to the 12th section of the Organic Act, that the provisions therein contained refer merely to the manner of disbursing the appropriations, regarding the Secretary of the Territory as a mere conduit pipe through whose hands the appropriations are to pass, and nowhere recognizing said disbursing officer as possessed of legislative or judicial power. And it will be further seen that said act plainly recognizes the power of the Legislature to state the person who is to perform the work of public printing.

Your committee are further of the opinion that the subject of printing is plainly under the control of the Territorial Legislature, not only by express words of the several acts but by necessary implication, as being one of the incidental powers belonging to the law-making powers, and without which should the Secretary of the Territory at any time refuse to provide for such printing, legislation would be retarded.

In regard to the other subjects included in the Secretary's report, the minority of the committee having reported thereon and the whole committee concurring therein, the majority of your committee make no mention in their majority report.

Your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution, viz:

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk be instructed to procure two thousand printed copies of the Governor's Message for the use of the House.

MINORITY REPORT.

In the matter of the consideration of Council Bill No. 4, "A bill for an act changing the time fixed by law for the convening of the Legislative Assembly," having had the same under consideration, your committee are unable to agree, and the chairman would most respectfully report:

That in view of the fact that grave doubts exist, under the Organic Act, and the instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to the Secretary of Nebraska, whether the Secretary of this Territory is authorized to pay the expenses of an extra session of the Legislative Assembly, before the expenses thereof have been estimated for and submitted to the proper department of the general government, for rejection or approval; and for the purpose of relieving the Secretary of the Territory and the Executive Department from embarrassment in the premises, the chairman of your committee most respectfully recommends the passage of said act. And for the further reason, that the chairman of your committee is of the opinion that all needful and necessary laws can be passed within the time as limited by law for the regular session of the Legislative Assembly.

If we are animated by the just and honorable purpose of enacting for the people of this Territory and ourselves, such laws as shall protect both person and property, and afford a speedy and ready redress for injuries and wrongs and ample protection for rights.

And as your chairman is of the opinion that there is no doubt, if this session is made the regular session it relieves the Executive Department of this Territory from embarrassments and difficulties, and protects the Territory against the possibility of having to pay, or becoming liable for the expenses of this session of the Legislative Assembly—therefore, your chairman would most respectfully recommend and urge its passage.

O. P. MASON,
Ch'n Com. on Judiciary.

Mr. Marquette, from same committee, submitted the following

MAJORITY REPORT.

The undersigned, a majority of your committee, to which was referred

C. B. No. 4, "A bill for an act changing the time fixed by law for the convening of the Legislative Assembly," having had the same under consideration, beg leave to submit the following report:

The effect of the passage of the bill, in the opinion of a majority of your committee, would be to cut off forty days of legislation which now rightfully belong to the people of this Territory. And judging from the slow progress which has hitherto been made by this House, it might deprive the people of this Territory of some of those laws which they now so much need.

Forty days, to say the least, is a short time to get up and mature an entire new system of laws, and if at the end of that time our work should be unfinished, the passage of this act will leave our Territory suffering from the same evils which we have been called here to remedy.

And your committee see no reason why, at this period of the session, we should pass this bill.

If, towards its close, it is ascertained that we will accomplish at this session all legislation needful to our people, the undersigned of your committee, so far as they have now considered the question, would cheerfully vote for the passage of such a bill. But at the present time they feel in duty bound to report the same back to the House, and recommend that it do not now pass.

DAVID L. COLLIER.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Oct. 1, 1858. }

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives:

I have most respectfully to inform your honorable body, that all correspondence between myself and the Treasury Department, in which you can have any direct interest, has already been placed before you.

In reply to your request for an estimate of the expenditures of a Legislative session of forty days, I have to state, that I am unable to make one with any certainty before the presentation of the bills. I respectfully suggest, however, that the estimate made by the honorable Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, which is twenty thousand dollars, is probably very nearly correct. The fact that every session of the Legislature preceding the present one, has cost the general government either twenty thousand dollars or more, leads me to put great confidence in the estimate of the honorable Secretary of the Treasury.

R. W. STEELE,
J. B. WASSON.

Accompanying the foregoing report came the following communication from R. C. Jordan, Territorial Auditor:

OMAHA,
September 30, 1858. }

Gentlemen of the Committee:

I have drawn up a short bill amendatory to the act approved March 16, 1855, making slight alterations in sections 25 and 26 of that act. The bill as amended makes the salary of the Auditor fifteen hundred dollars per annum, of the Treasurer one thousand dollars per annum.

As these amounts are payable in territorial warrants, which are now selling at from 30 to 40 cents on the dollar, no one can, with any reason, object to the amount, when I inform you that in the Auditor's office in particular, the whole work from the beginning in 1855, has to be gone over, and a new set of books opened in regular order, and the compensation for one year would not be equivalent to the amount of work to be performed.

The Treasurer wishes me to state to you that inasmuch as he is under bonds to the amount of $25,000, and the labors of his office to be increased by the passage of the new revenue bill, he should be entitled to $1,000 per annum.

Yours, respectfully,

R. C. JORDAN,

Territorial Auditor.

Mr. Mason, from Committee on Judiciary, to which were referred House Bills Nos. 1, 2, 7, 10 and 15, Bills for a Homestead Exemption act, submitted the following report:

"The undersigned, to whom were referred various Homestead Exemption Bills have carefully examined and considered the same, and would respectfully report the accompanying substitute for the consideration of the House, and recommend its passage:

Your committee would further state, that in addition to the ordinary reasons and arguments in favor of the wisdom of legislative action protecting the homesteads of families from forced sale and execution, the peculiar situation of the people of this Territory, and their present circumstances, urge this policy upon us, with a force which we can not resist, animated as we are by a desire to subserve the public good. But one year ago, everything around us rejoiced in the sunlight of prosperity and success. Enterprise was conducting our people through a thousand avenues, illuminated with the brilliant torchlight of hope, to individual and national wealth.

The conquest of the wilderness went on like the work of magic; civilization was fast rearing her altars on the camp ground of the savage, and on every hand abounded the certain indications of thrift and contentment. But suddenly a cloud came upon the prospects of our people, and the gloom of midnight succeeded the brightness of noon day. A financial revulsion without parallel in the history of our country has entirely deranged the affairs of our people; and the ruin of thousands of our citizens is inevitable unless they are upheld and sustained by the helping hand of legislation.

The home of the settler, the scene and the result of his hardship and toil, must go to swell the fortune of the merciless speculator and heartless and foreign money lender, unless the law, armed with justice, shall say to the avaricious and grasping creditor, "Thus far shalt thou go, and no farther." And unless this is done, I fear a spiritless inaction will succeed to and take the place of that tireless energy and persevering industry which has hitherto characterized our young and vigorous population.

Our people are not responsible for this state of things; no human sagacity could have averted the evil. It came upon us like an avalanche, and has swept away the prospect which encouraged our individual efforts, and abated the ardor of enterprise which guaranteed our success.

Your committee is clearly of the opinion that a liberal Homestead Law is more loudly called for by the wants of our people than any one other act of legislation. The passage of such a law would not only relieve our own citizens from their present embarrassment, but would encourage emigration, offering, as it would, an inducement for settlement amongst us of that class who have felt the hand of adversity most severely in other parts of the country. Many a man of enterprise and possessed of good business qualifications would thus be induced to gather up the remnants of a broken fortune, and purchase a homestead among us, and here upon our broad prairies and from our generous soil, would, in the enjoyment of his home, by the fostering care of legislation, rear a home which would be an ornament to our country and a proud heritage for his children.

Another great benefit, universal in its application, which would result from the passage of a liberal homestead law, would be the blow that would be given to the credit system, that most dangerous of all systems, which destroys alike all who trust to the plaudits of its admirers.

For these and other reasons equally and still more weighty, your committee would most respectfully urge the early passage of a liberal homestead exemption law.

O. P. MASON.

C. B. No. 51, "A bill to incorporate the Dempster Biblical Institute," Submitted the following report, which was accepted:

Your committee, to whom were referred

C. B. No. 49, "A bill to incorporate a seminary in Cass county,"

C. B. No. 50, "A bill to incorporate a university in Cass county," and

C. B. No. 51, "A bill to incorporate the Dempster Biblical Institute,"

With the amendments thereto, have had the same under consideration, and the majority of the committee, believing them to be right and proper, would report them back to the House without further amendment, and respectfully recommend their passage.

It has been objected to these corporations that they were unrestricted in the amount of property they may acquire and hold in the territory, and that they are liable to become great monopolies in our midst.

The idea of such unlimited power may, at first, strike those who lose sight of the exclusive objects of the institutions, as dangerous to the welfare of the territory.

But as we find the powers conferred by the several bills strictly guarded and exclusively confined to the one object of education (for there are no other powers conferred by them), the sole question which remains is, can they have too much power to educate?

Is there any danger of the facilities of education becoming too great? Is there any danger of the people of the Territory ever becoming too well educated? too literary? too scientific? too much enlightened? The proposition that they may, bears absurdity on its face. So thoroughly have all our enlightened states been convinced that the real danger in the case lies in the contrary direction, that we have sought in vain for an example of an institution of the kind, where all of its means are to be devoted to education, being restricted in the amount of its capital. If the persons to whom you are about to intrust the educational interests contemplated, are proper persons to educate at all, they certainly should not be restricted in the means of accomplishing their work. If not, they should not, by authority, be allowed to educate at all.

Again, the proposition that they should be restricted in the mode of the investment of their funds, seems to be equally absurd. There is no more inconvenience or danger to the public in their holding their endowment in lands, than in bank stocks, bonds and mortgages, or cash. Hence we claim that restriction to a limited amount of lands or any other particular kind of property, can work no good, whilst it might embarrass or even defeat the enterprise.

As to the propriety of the exemption of the property from taxation, it is a broad and plain question, upon which there can be only two opinions. As their entire property must be used for only one object, it is either right to exempt it all from taxation, or it is not proper to exempt any portion of it. The almost universal custom amongst enlightened states of all countries, of exempting the property of educational and other purely benevolent institutions, from taxation, commends itself as a custom founded in sound and enlightened policy; and we should be exceedingly sorry to see Nebraska in her infancy start off in the opposite direction.

As the sole object of government is the public good, can it be proper that it should impose any burden or barrier in the way of a purely beneficent enterprise? Certainly not. As it will be at once readily admitted that proper education is a pure beneficence, we are brought to the only question of importance that is at issue—the basis of all the objections that can be raised. That is, is education as contemplated in these bills, a proper education? Shall education under the direction of the Methodist Episcopal church be deemed proper, or shall it be restricted and taxed?

Your committee, in recommending the passage of these bills, are influenced solely by what they deem the best interests of the Territory, and would take this occasion to state that whilst they gladly extend encouragement and protection to Methodism, they would with equal willingness do as much for any other denomination which would show its appreciation of the boon by asking for it.

Your committee would further express the hope that it will be the policy of this and future legislatures, to give to all churches such immunities and protection as contemplated in these bills, that our virgin soil may be the theater of a generous rivalry in spreading abroad the ennobling influences of education and religion.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

B. P. RANKIN, Chairman,
T. M. MARQUETTE.

Tuesday, October 12, 1858.

Submitted the following minority report thereon:

The minority of your special committee, to whom was referred C. B. No. 32, "A bill to amend chapter two of the Laws of 1857, relative to district courts," respectfully reports:

We have considered this bill and can not recommend its passage by this House.

The bill, if it becomes a law, will operate unfairly, and discriminate in favor of the debtor to the great injury of the creditor, and open a wide avenue to fraud.

We are anxious to shield debtors, at this unfortunate period, from unreasonable sacrifice of property for the satisfaction of their debts. It is undoubtedly true that there is almost a destitution of floating capital in the territory, and if property is sold without some restriction under proceedings at law, it must be sold at a rate far below its real value, and the sacrifice enforced upon a debtor will be immeasurable and unjust.

And here we believe the Legislature ought to exercise its power for the protection of debtors, by the enactment of a just law of appraisement, and such other constitutional laws as may be needful, to restrain the sale of property at ruinous rates.

But the legislative power ought never to be exercised in such a manner as to prevent or delay creditors in the assertion of their rights; or by taking away remedies, to indirectly impair the legal obligation of contracts.

The bill before your committee delays and injures the remedy of creditors, and, in effect, postpones the assertion of their rights until debtors who may be dishonestly inclined may transfer or dispose of their property, and render the prosecution of their claims to judgment useless.

We are of the opinion that the bill, in all its general features, is of doubtful constitutionality, believing that it does impair the obligation of contracts; and we especially point out the fourth section of the bill, and hold that section to be unconstitutional.

Believing that debtors may be protected by other and constitutional laws, and considering the true interests of the territory, and the welfare and prosperity of the people, we recommend that this bill be rejected.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
Oct. 14, 1858. }

Mr. Speaker :

I am instructed to inform your honorable body that Messrs. Reeves and Furnas have been appointed a joint committee on the part of the Council, upon the enrollment of bills by virtue of the seventh joint rule of the Council and House of Representatives."

S. M. CURRAN, Chief Clerk.

Mr. Claves from special committee to which was referred

H. B. No. 23, "A bill to exempt a homestead and certain other property from forced sale,"

Submitted the following minority report:

Your committee to which was referred the bill entitled An act to exempt a homestead and certain other property from forced sale, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to submit the following minority report:

That your committee are satisfied, that the passage of a homestead law, without limitation of value, would result to the prejudice of a large majority of the people of the Territory.

It would enable the debtor to live in luxury, and enjoy a life of abundance, and ease, while his many creditors, the victims of fraud, would be debarred all remedy. It would prove the refuge of fraud and injustice, after a successful conspiracy to obtain the fruits of honest labor.

Upon this subject the diversity of opinion between the majority and minority proved so great, that a compromise was impossible.

The minority of your committee conceive, that the rights of the creditor should equally be recognized with those of the debtor, and that rigid justice can not permit one man to reserve a luxurious home from out of the property of another. Recognizing as they do the free agency of each individual and his right to make such contracts and engagements as he may choose, they also believe that parties should be compelled to comply with the conditions of their contracts and to keep their engagements.

The consequences of reckless speculation, improvidence or miscalculation, should rest, not with the innocent creditor, but with him alone who neglects the rules of prudence; hence they can not but deprecate any legislation which holds the guilty debtor harmless and visits the injury upon the creditor.

The question for your committee to determine becomes—Has society any right to interfere between debtor and creditor, excepting to oblige the debtor to pay his liabilities to the extent of his means? In reply to which, they confidently declare that no discrimination should be made in favor of the debtor and against the creditor, excepting, so far as may be necessary, to provide himself and family with the means of securing an independence of public charity; humanity requires, and the interests of society alike demand, that they be not permitted to become a public burthen.

This amount, they believe, should be a money limitation, which is left blank in the bill herewith reported, as a substitute for the bill referred to your committee; the general provisions of which your committee recommend for the adoption of this House.

Mr. Rankin, from special committee to which was referred

H. B. No. 23, "A bill to exempt a homestead and certain other property from forced sale,"

Submitted the following report:

The special committee to whom was referred H. B. No. 23, "A bill to exempt the homestead of families," have had the same under consideration, and after carefully considering its provisions, would respectfully submit the accompanying bill as a substitute and urgently recommend its passage.

A homestead, in the true sense of the term, whether it be the humble cabin or the princely palace, is the centre of the family circle, and the family affections with all the household goods and sacred memories clustering around it. The very term suggests a something which should be secured beyond the reach of misfortune, and its holy precincts should never be invaded by the ruthless tread of the officers of the law. Sheriff, spare that home!

If you tear it from the possession of the owner, and drive him with his wife and children to seek new scenes, you harden a sensitive heart, and strike a fatal blow at that love and pride of state which should swell the heart of every citizen.

A home, with all of its endearments for every family, is the country's best guarantee of good citizenship and a patriotic population. Without it we are Arabs on the plain of life, deprived of those attachments and affections which are awakened and kept warm by the thoughts of "Home, sweet Home."

The very idea of limitation in value to such a possession, does violence to all our most cherished and preconceived notions of a homestead.

There are a thousand things which endear and sanctify the precincts of home above price, to a member of a family, but have no value to the eye of the stranger. The shade tree planted by the father in early manhood, and protecting his children from the suns of summer; the murmuring brook which mirrored the smiles of infancy; the woodbine planted and trained by the mother who is no more. Who shall give value to these, and who would not guard them from the sacrilegious touch of all invaders?

Your committee would see Nebraska covered over its broad extent, with homesteads which would be the pride of every family, and the ornament of the Territory—which the son would improve and the daughter adorn, and the wanderer fondly turn to, as the brightest spot in the memory of years—the sure haven of his hopes in adversity as in prosperity.

Mr. Roeder, from Committee on Common Schools, submitted the following report:

The committee to whom was referred

H. F. No. 9, "A bill to establish the Common School System in the Territory of Nebraska," ask leave to make the following report:

Having had the same under consideration, we hereby lay before the House a short review of its main features, consisting in the following:

The bill provides for a Territorial Superintendent, as the mainspring to set the school system into early and practical operation. The main defect in our present system is the impossibility of securing a qualified person to take charge of the responsible and multiplied duties for such a small remuneration, as provided, and the difficulty under that system to collect the necessary funds to give it vitality. In order to induce men to spend their time and talents in serving the public with all that enthusiasm such a cause deserves, we must conclude to pay a sufficient compensation, and this the bill proposes to do by giving to the Territorial Superintendent a salary of one thousand dollars, and allowing him traveling expenses, when absent from the Capitol on business pertaining to his office. The bill further provides for County Superintendents, whose duties are to divide the counties into proper districts, apportion the schools amongst the different districts, appoint and examine teachers, and do all other necessary business provided for and connected with his office. The different districts in the county are to be superintended by directors elected by the voters of each district, who have to determine the number of schools in the district, the manner in which school-houses have to be built and located, to take charge of books, apparatus, &c., and to perform and discharge faithfully all other business, belong to their office. The school fund is proposed to consist of three distinct funds, the teachers' fund, the library fund, and the school-house fund. The teachers' fund is to be raised by an assessment of two mills on the dollar valuation upon all taxable property of the Territory, to be assessed and collected in the same manner and at the same time as the territorial taxes; it further provides for all fines for the breach of the penal laws, and all forfeitures, which may accrue on all land and other estates for want of heirs; it provides the income derived from school sections sixteen and thirty-six, or the land in lieu thereof. The library fund may be raised by a tax of one-tenth of a mill, and the school-house fund by a tax of not less than three and not more than five mills on the dollar valuation.

The question, whether we shall have an effective system of common schools in our Territory, will present itself to every member of this body as one of the greatest importance. Our present law, experience has shown, can not be made vital for want of two life-giving principles, and these are, first, the means to pay teachers and build school-houses, and second, an all regulating and superintending power to bring the system into operation. Both these defects are effectually met by this bill, and your committee therefore earnestly recommend its adoption.

The establishment of free schools in a free country is a sacred duty on the part of a commonwealth, for the intelligence of the people is admitted by all great minds to be the surest and most enduring foundation of a republican government. The better you pay your teachers, the more favorable will be the prospect to secure such as are competent, and the more beneficial will be the result thereof. Good schools exert upon the eastern emigrant another of the numerous attractions our fair country already holds out for him, and in many instances giving a decision in favor of our Territory, whenever the head of a large family, weighing and considering the advantages of schools and education in his eastern home, stands in doubt, whether he shall give up his old and comfortable homestead and migrate to a new and distant country, where his children may likely lose all prospect to receive even a common school education only.

Your committee, being of opinion that the bill under consideration is particularly well adapted to our future bright prospects of a largely increased population, having the necessary vitality to carry its provisions into practical operation, and also desiring that every member of this House may have an opportunity to make himself well acquainted with the provisions of this act, recommend this bill to be printed before it is put upon its passage.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

AUGUSTUS BORDER,
HENRY W. DE PUY.

JAMES STEWART,
DAVIS,
BRAMBLE,
KLINE,
RAMSEY.

Mr. Davis of Washington, from special committee, submitted the following majority report:

Your committee, to whom was referred the petition of citizens of Washington county, praying the removal of the county seat, and also H. B. No. 74, "An act to relocate the seat of justice of Washington county," having had the same under consideration and being satisfied that a majority of the citizens of said county demand that said change in "county seat" should be made. Your committee therefore beg leave to report the same back to the House without amendment, and recommend the passage of the bill.

CHARLES D. DAVIS,

S. G. DAILY,

Committee.

Mr. Kline, from same committee, submitted the following minority report:

The undersigned, one of the special committee, to whom was referred H. B. No. 74, entitled "An act to relocate the county seat of Washington county," have had the same under consideration, and recommend that the whole subject matter be laid on the table until Monday next. Your committee is of opinion that a majority of the voters of Washington do not desire any special law passed for the purpose of relocating the seat of justice of said county at any certain place; but would prefer to regulate their own affairs in their own way. The petitions referred to your committee do not recommend any particular point, and if they did, they are only an expression of a portion of the citizens of said county. There are remonstrances now in circulation in said county praying the Legislature not to pass any law in relation to Washington county on this subject, as there is now a general law in force with which they are well satisfied, and if the people in the north part of the county do not complain, the people in the Desoto neighborhood should not.

Your committee is of opinion, it would be for the best interests of said county to leave this vexed question rest, until the county becomes more densely settled, and her resources more fully developed, and then, the people under a general law, can locate the seat of justice at any place they may desire—the location and re-location of the county seat of said county has been agitated during every session of the Legislature since the organization of this Territory, and if the Legislature should re-locate said seat of justice, it would not settle the controversy, but it will be left open, and every subsequent Legislature will have the matter before them, until finally the people will be called on to settle it in their own way.

L. M. KLINE.

The undersigned, members of the House of Representatives, believing that they are misrepresented by the Journal of the proceedings in this House on the 21st instant, respectfully submit the following statement and protest:

The Journal of the House is incorrect, especially in that it states that Mr. Collier moved to take up the business on the Speaker's table and orders of the day; in that it does not state the ruling of the Speaker upon the real motion of Mr. Collier; in that it does not state the points of order raised when the Speaker took up Council Bill No. 3, after the motion of Mr. Rankin to take up unfinished business, and the ruling of the Speaker on these points of order; in that it does not state the Council Bill No. 3 was then laid again upon the Speaker's table by the Speaker; in that it does not state the motion of Mr. Gwyer, to take up the bill reported by the minority of the special committee, to whom was referred the Homestead Bill, H. B. No. 6, being the unfinished business, or the disposition by the Speaker of that motion; in that it does not state that after the motion of Mr. Stewart, to lay upon the table all matters connected with the Homestead Bill except Council Bill No. 3, that Mr. Collier made two points of order, nor state those points of order, nor the decisions upon them; in that it does not state correctly the motion of Mr. Steinberger, and does not state the points of order raised by Mr. Clayes, nor the decisions upon them; and in that it does not state that on the motion of Mr. Rankin, on the motion of Mr. Steinberger, on the motion to read the bill (C. B. No. 3) the third time, and on the motion that the bill pass, the previous question was on each motion called, preventing and cutting off amendments or debate.

And the undersigned do further state that the following is a true record that should appear on the journal:

After the motion of Mr. Mason to instruct the Committee on Schools, hereinbefore referred to,

Mr. Collier moved to take up the special order of the day.

This motion was not entertained by the Speaker, who stated that the proper motion would be to take up the business on the Speaker's table.

A motion was made to take up the business on the Speaker's table.

Mr. Gwyer moved to take up the Revenue Bill, that being the special order of this day, at 10 o'clock A. M.

Ayes and nays were called, and the motion lost.

Mr. Rankin then moved to take up the unfinished business, and called the previous question.

Mr. Gwyer moved to lay the motion of Mr. Rankin on the table.

The ayes and nays were demanded, and the motion was lost.

The question on Mr. Rankin's motion,

Carried.

The Speaker then placed before the House

C. B. No. 3, "An act to exempt the homestead of families from forcible sale."

And upon this, questions of order were raised against the action of the Speaker, which were decided by the Speaker against the persons who submitted the questions; on appeal, the decisions of the Speaker were sustained by a majority of the House.

Mr. Gwyer moved to take up the minority report of the special committee, and the bill reported by them, as being the unfinished business.

Questions of order were here submitted against the act of the Speaker in taking up C. B. No. 3, and to sustain Mr. Gwyer's motion.

Mr. Gwyer's motion was not entertained.

The Speaker then laid again on his table the C. B. No. 3, and took up the bill reported by the minority of the special committee, to whom was referred the Homestead Bill, as the unfinished business.

The question then arose on filling the blanks in the first section of the bill; on which the ayes and nays were demanded.

(The vote on the filling of the blanks is correctly stated in the Journal.)

The question then arose on the amendment of Mr. Rankin.

Ayes and nays called, and the amendment lost.

(As is correctly stated in the Journal.)

Mr. Stewart now moved to lay on the table the whole matter connected with the Homestead Bill, except C. B. No. 3, "An act to exempt the homestead of families from forcible sale."

The ayes and nays were demanded: Ayes—19. Nays—12.

Mr. Collier submitted questions of order Nos. 1 and 2:

1st. The motion of the gentleman from Douglas (Stewart), to lay on the table all except C. B. No. 3, does not leave the C. B. No. 3, before the House, for the reason, that bill was not before the House yesterday, and cannot be included with the unfinished business.

2d. There being a special order (the Revenue Bill), that order can not be suspended, and C. B. No. 3 taken up, unless by vote of two-thirds.

The Speaker decided that both points of order were not well taken.

An appeal was then made to the House, and the decision of the Speaker was sustained.

Mr. Steinberger moved to take up C. B. No. 3, and that it be read the third time, and at the same time offered the following amendment:

By inserting after the words "family homestead," the words, "of every free white householder of this Territory, male or female, being an occupant or owner of the premises,"

And called the previous question.

Mr. Clayes then raised questions of order Nos. 1 and 2.

1st. That no amendment is in order until the question is stated by the Chair to be on reading the bill the third time.

2d. That two distinct and independent motions can not be made at the same time and the previous question called, thus confining the action of the House to the two motions cutting off debate.

The Speaker decided both questions of order were not well taken; and an appeal was made to the House, and ayes and nays demanded, and the decision of the Speaker was sustained.

The question then (the previous question having been called) was taken up, on the amendment of Steinberger, and the amendment was adopted, by ayes 17, nays 14.

A motion was then made to read the bill a third time, and the previous question called and seconded.

The bill was then read the third time.

Having thus stated particularly our objections to the journal, and stated the proceedings truly as we believe, we do protest against the action of this House, by which we were refused (on yesterday, the 22d) any correction of the journal.

It is due to every member of this House, and to the House collectively, that the journal should state precisely the action of the House, and be a perfect record of its proceedings. The journal of the 21st is not a true record of the proceedings, and presents the undersigned opponents of the homestead bill (the Council Bill No. 3) as tamely and silently permitting that bill to pass without amendment or opposition, other than the mere record of part of the votes taken immediately before and on its passage.

We are therefore compelled to this statement, and respectfully ask and insist upon our just right, to place our statement and protest on the records of the House.

DAVID L. COLLIER,
WILLIAM A. GWYER,
GEORGE CLAYES,
MILTON F. CLARK.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, Omaha, }
Oct. 28, 1858.

To the House of Representatives :

Mr. Speaker :

I am instructed by the Governor to announce to your honorable body the following message, and return to you a bill for "An act to authorize M. Mahan, D. R. Robb and John G. Treadway, to keep and run a ferry across the Missouri river at Wyoming, in Otoe county, Nebraska Territory."

J. McCONIHIE,

Private Secretary.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, Omaha, N. T., }
October 28, 1858.

To the House of Representatives :

I return a bill for "An act to authorize M. Mahan, D. R. Robb and J. G. Treadway, to keep and run a ferry across the Missouri river, at Wyoming, Otoe county, Nebraska Territory," with my objections to the same.

The bill now before me authorizes M. Mahan, D. R. Robb and John G. Treadway, their associates, heirs and assigns, for the period of twenty years, to have the exclusive privilege of keeping a ferry on the Missouri river, at Wyoming. Their right under this bill extends two miles up and down said river, from the mouth of the Weeping Water.

The Legislative Assembly, by an act approved Feb. 28, 1855, granted the right to Josiah Burget, his associates, heirs or assigns, to establish and keep a ferry across the Missouri river, at Wyoming, N. T., or any other practicable point on said river, within three miles either way from the centre of said town, for the period of ten years.

I do not question the power of the Legislative Assembly to confer the privilege of ferrying and crossing for toll at this point, but when they confer, as they do in this bill, the exclusive right, they restrict rights already accrued, and interfere with privileges that were granted to Josiah Burget, his associates and assigns. I can not therefore approve the bill.

Governor, N. T.

Together with the petitions and affidavits concerning the same, have had the same under consideration, and a majority of your committee report back the bill and recommend its passage, with a provision incorporated in the bill, giving to the people of Washington county the privilege of holding a special election, on a petition of the majority of the legal voters of said county, at any time within fifteen days after such petition.

It is with much reluctance that your committee recommend legislative interference in local affairs, but in this case the present county seat has been fixed by the Legislature, where your committee think, from the petitions, affidavits, &c., a majority of the people do not wish it, and by the change which the bill proposes, we think from the evidence before us, is in accordance with the popular will, still your committee confess that it is not without doubt that they arrive at this conclusion.

The following communication from Hon. J. Sterling Morton, Secretary of the Territory, was received:

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Omaha City, }
October 28, 1858.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives:

At the instance of several of the members of your honorable body, I have the honor to transmit herewith, for your consideration, the letter of Hon. Wm. Medill, in relation to your per diem, &c.:

WASHINGTON CITY, }
Oct. 18, 1858.

* * * * * If the convened session, which met on the 4th instant, shall adjourn at the end of forty days from the commencement of the called or extraordinary session, thus constituting the two one continued session of that number of days, the entire per diem and mileage may be paid to the members and per diem to the officers; but if the session which convened on the 4th instant shall, of itself, continue forty days in addition to the thirteen occupied by that which was called by the Governor, then you will pay the per diem and mileage of the regular or convened session only, and take no notice of the extraordinary session, leaving their compensation for the determination of Congress.

It is stated in the dispatch to you, that "no constructive mileage can be recognized," and this is considered but just as the Assembly at the extra session stood adjourned on the 3d, to meet on the 4th of October, instant, with the same officers of the Council and House, and, indeed, had any election been held on the 4th for a new set of officers, I apprehend the department could not have allowed "constructive mileage" without an act of Congress authorizing it to be paid.

Very respectfully, yours,

(Signed), WILLIAM MEDILL,
Comptroller.

Saturday, October 30, 1858.

The above is the latest instruction that I have from the department upon this subject, and it will therefore control me.

Your select committee, to which was referred the matter of the protest of Messrs. Collier, Gwyer, Clayes and Clark, beg leave to submit to the House the following brief report, to wit:

That in their opinion, after a careful examination of the minutes, as well as the Journal of the House on the 21st inst., the journal does contain a truthful history of the proceedings on that day.

That it does not, and ought not to contain motions which were made and upon which points of order were raised, but which said motions were, by consent of the House, withdrawn.

Nor need it contain those points of order, as the same were withdrawn from the House, with the withdrawal of the motions upon which they were made.

Your committee would further say, that the most intense excitement prevailed in the House on that day, and that it is not at all strange that there should exist a misunderstanding as to what occurred during that excitement. Hence the protest.

And your committee will only add, that, in their opinion, it would not be improper to place the said protest, together with this report, upon the journals of the day, and would therefore recommend that the same be done.

Submitted the following report:

Your committee, to whom was referred "An act to establish a Code of Criminal Procedure," having had the same under consideration, report the same back to the House with the following amendments, and recommend that it do pass:

In section three hundred and thirty-two, in line seven of said section, after the word "served" insert "by any person not a party to the action."

After the word "constable," in line eight of the same section, insert "But when served by any other person than a public officer."

Also insert in section six hundred and twenty-one, after the figures "1857," the following: "And that chapter twenty-seven of the second Session Laws, approved January 25, 1856, of mechanics' liens, and the law entitled 'An act for securing liens to mechanics and others,' passed at the first session of the Legislature, approved March 14, 1856."

Your committee flatter themselves that the Code herewith repeated is a great improvement upon the law now in force. But in the short time allowed them to examine the Code herewith reported, it could not be expected but imperfections exist which can be remedied as experience points out the same. We feel a degree of assurance and satisfaction in recommending this Code, from the fact it comes to us recommended and approved after a practical operation in the state of Ohio for several years.

The undersigned, a minority of the committee to whom was referred "An act to apportion the members of the House of Representatives of the Territory of Nebraska," having had the same under consideration, and being unable to agree upon a report with the other members of the committee, beg leave to report the following minority report:

In the opinion of your committee, a new apportionment can not be based with equal and exact justice upon the last vote for members of the Legislature. The only correct and proper basis for a new apportionment would be on a census of the inhabitants of the Territory. As there is no such census to base it upon, the undersigned is compelled to submit a minority report, adverse to the bill under consideration, and recommend its indefinite postponement.

If, in the opinion of the House, however, it is deemed best to make a new apportionment at the present time, the undersigned respectfully presents to the consideration of the House a bill, as a substitute to the bill referred to the committee, and would recommend its passage.

WILLIAM A. GWYER.

H. B. No. 131, "A bill for an act to abolish slavery in the Territory of Nebraska,"

Submitted the following

MAJORITY REPORT:

Your committee, to whom was referred a bill for the abolition of slavery in this Territory, having had the same under consideration, beg leave to make the following majority report:

The abolition and prohibition of slavery in this territory is so clearly in accordance with the spirit of the age, and the wants of a progressive and enlightened and free people, that your committee deem it time wasted to stop to prove it to a highly civilized and christianized people; were we living in the dark ages of the world's history—in a semi-civilized state, instead of the latter half of the nineteenth century—such a work might not be unnecessary.

And that the Legislature of this Territory has the power legally to enact such a law, we have only to refer to the ever living principles of all free and republican governments, to wit: That the people rule, acknowledging no superior dictator, making their own laws in their own way. And in no case in all our glorious history do we find this grand principle more fully recognized, or more clearly expressed, than in our Organic Act, where it is declared that it is not the "intention of this act to legislate slavery into any Territory or State, or to exclude it therefrom, but to leave the people thereof perfectly free to form and regulate their domestic institutions in their own way, subject only to the Constitution of the United States."

And it is upon this doctrine—that the people are the fountain of all power—that your committee plant themselves, wholly disavowing the doctrines contained in President Buchanan's message, that this Territory is as much a slave territory as South Carolina or Georgia.

S. G. DAILY,
JAMES STEWART,
JOHN TAFFE.

Mr. Rankin, from same committee, submitted the following

MINORITY REPORT:

The minority of the select committee to whom was referred the bill for an act to abolish slavery in the Territory of Nebraska, have had the same under careful consideration, and respectfully ask leave to submit the following report:

Your committee deeply regret the introduction into this House of a bill of this character, and greatly fear that it was done at the prompting of political ambition, rather than through a sincere desire to advance the useful and legitimate legislation so loudly called for by the wants and necessities of our people. It is unfortunate for our history as a territory, that the halls of legislation have at times witnessed scenes of strife and angry controversy. Sectionalism in territorial matters has hitherto distracted our people and done much to embitter our social relations, and to destroy those feelings of brotherhood which should ever exist amongst the pioneers of a new country whose peculiar duty it is to help one another in molding and directing the destinies of a young empire, which we trust will be our pride and the glorious herit age of our children.

The duties of a laborious and protracted session were about drawing to a close, and congratulations were general amongst the members, that the records of one term at least of the Nebraska Legislature would not be stained with the foot-prints of strife. We were congratulating ourselves upon the passage of criminal and civil codes, a revenue law, and other laws of a general nature which the public wants demanded. But a few days of the session still remained, and upon their labors hung the fate of the school law, a homestead law, and a license law, which were second to none in their importance and in their effect upon the well being of society. It is to be deplored that there was a single member in this hall who would not rather consecrate his efforts to the passage of these laws rather than to the introduction of a measure which can have no practical effect other than to sow dissension and discord amongst our people.

Slavery does not exist in this Territory in any practical form, and can not so exist without affirmative legislation, recognizing the right of property in slaves, and regulating the mode of protecting and controlling them, and of enforcing that right. The abstract right under the constitution which is claimed by some, is in fact only an inchoate right, which can have no practical importance in the absence of local police regulations upon the subject. In the absence then of any such legislation upon the subject—in the absence of any effort on the part of any member of either branch of the Legislature to introduce legislation for the protection of slavery, the minority of your committee deem it not only unnecessary but extremely unwise and unpatriotic, in the present state of the public mind, to hurl this fire-brand of strife into our peaceful Territory. The page of blood which Kansas has furnished to the history of the world, should have been a warning to the fell hand which has attempted to strike such a blow at our peace and quiet.

The minority of your committee would therefore recommend the indefinite postponement of the bill. Let the pages of our journals be ever free from an allusion to the subject, and Nebraska will grow old in her career of glory, and the word slavery, either for negative or positive purposes, will never disgrace the fair pages of our statute book.

All of which is most respectfully submitted,

D. P. RANKIN,

WM. C. FLEMING.

Mr. Steinberger moved that the House now resolve itself into Committee of the Whole to take into consideration

H. B. No. 131, "A bill for an act to abolish slavery in the Territory of Nebraska,"

MINORITY REPORT:

The undersigned one of a joint committee to whom was referred a bill entitled, "An act to exempt the homestead of families from forcible sale,"

Having had the same under consideration and been unable to agree with a majority of said committee, begs leave to submit the following

MINORITY REPORT:

That in the opinion of your committee the bill under consideration is not such a homestead bill as will meet the approval of a majority of the citizens of this Territory.

The undersigned is firmly impressed with the opinion that a homestead bill having as its principal feature a limitation in value, is best adapted to the wants of the people of the Territory, and will best subserve the interest of the creditor as well as the debtor.

Entertaining these views and having been appointed on the part of the House, which by a decisive vote insisted on the amendment offered to the bill, the undersigned is compelled by the force of his own convictions, as well as by his duty to the House which appointed him, to dissent from the action of the majority of the committee.

For these, as well as other reasons not stated, I beg leave to report in favor of insisting upon the amendment offered to the bill in the House, in order too, by this action, if possible, to prevent the passage of the act.

WM. A. GWYER.
